

MORE COMPANY, INC.
SUMMARY OF FOREIGN APPROVALS
STATUS AS OF FEBRUARY 4, 2020

There are 2750 PT6A engines that are now using or have used the MORE Instructions for Continued Airworthiness. The first engines were placed on the MORE Instructions for Continued Airworthiness autumn 1993.

The 67 countries that have recognized the MORE FAA STCs by allowing aircraft registered in their country to operate utilizing the MORE Company FAA STCs are:

Albania	Argentina	Australia	Austria	Bahamas	Barbados	Belgium
Belize	Brazil	British Virgin Islands	British West Indies	Cayman Islands	Chile	Czech Republic
Colombia	Costa Rica	Croatia	Denmark	Dominican Republic	Ecuador	England
Fiji	France	Germany	Great Britain	Greece	Guam	Guatemala
Honduras	Hungary	Iceland	Ireland	Israel	Italy	Jamaica
Kenya	Latvia	Mexico	Mongolia	Morocco	Netherlands	New Guinea
Netherlands-Antilles	New Zealand	Nicaragua	Norway	Panama	Papa New Guinea	Paraguay
Peru	Poland	Puerto Rico	Slovenia	Solomon Islands	South Africa	Spain
Sweden	Switzerland	Thailand	Tonga	Turks & Caicos	Turkey	United Kingdom
Uruguay	Venezuela	Virgin Islands	Zambia

Comment, most of the above-named countries have Bi-Lateral Airworthiness Agreements with the United States of America. These countries have allowed the direct use of the United States, Federal Aviation Administration, Supplemental Type Certificate without additional review from the respective country's airworthiness regulatory authority.